The Poag Street Fire: Fairfax County's Largest Fire

Fire Chief John Butler, Fairfax County (VA) Fire & Rescue Department

On Saturday, February 8 2020, at approximately, 9:40 AM, Fairfax County Fire & Rescue responded to reports of a building fire in the 2800 block of Poag Street in the Groveton area of Fairfax County, Virginia. Units arrived on scene within three minutes and reported an advanced fire from the top floor of a five-story building that was under construction. The fire evolved into a four-alarm incident, requiring mutual aid from multiple jurisdictions. In this presentation, Fairfax County Fire Chief John Butler will discuss pre-arrival circumstances, conditions upon fire department arrival, developments, needed resources, hazards, challenges, and lessons learned.
